

Timberblock oak siding is a unique product created by means of implementation of an innovation technology that involves application of an additional polymer layer – ultra-hard acrylic polyurethane coating. As the result the final product follows the wood texture and it is really durable, universal and easy in installation.

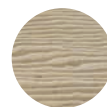

Panel size: Double 4-1/2" x 11'2"

Color palette

Fumed oak

Natural oak

Silver oak

Golden oak

Accessories

* Profiles are produced in the same colors as the siding

Inside corner

J-trim

Finishing - trim

Outside corner

Joint trim

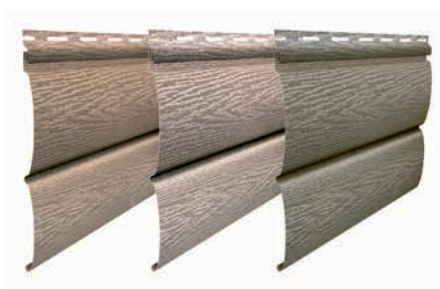

Window flashing

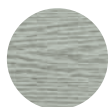

Timberblock ash siding is a unique combination of advanced technologies and a natural beauty of wooden facades. By its look, color and by touch it's a full analogue of the wood. The imitation accuracy of natural wood is so high that the distinction is almost invisible.

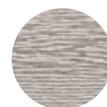

Panel size: Double 4-1/2" x 11'2"

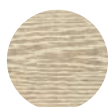

Color palette

Provence green ash

White ash

Golden ash

Accessories

* Profiles are produced in the same colors as the siding

Inside corner

J-trim

Finishing - trim

Outside corner

Joint trim

Window flashing

